The JFS team of mental health professionals support the well-being of children, teens, families, and elders with understanding and respect that we are all unique in seeking reasons for counseling. We take an individualized solution-based approach with each and every client to help resolve anxiety, stress, depression, or any circumstance that interferes with quality of life.

In addition to counseling services, JFS offers psychological assessment and testing as part of a comprehensive evaluation for identifying specific needs. We provide recommendations for treatment, academic placement, and Individualized Education Plans.

Our therapists have a wealth of experience in the areas of:

- Marriage, divorce, relationships
- Grief and loss
- Anxiety, depression, and trauma
- Addiction
- ADHD
- Learning/cognitive issues
- Aging and elder care
- Adoption, foster care/home placement challenges

JFS accepts most insurance types including Medicaid with appointment options in the morning, afternoon and evenings. We provide high-quality counseling regardless of race, religion, culture, or sexual orientation. Call us for help.
