Highlands Community Services' Child and Adolescent Care Coordination Services improve the well being of children and adolescents, who are seriously emotionally disturbed or at-risk, and their families in Bristol and Washington County, Virginia by assessing their needs and monitoring, linking, and coordinating the appropriate services to meet those needs. The Care Coordinator assists families in maintaining their child or adolescent with emotional disturbance in the home by securing community services to meet the family's and child's needs. The Care Coordinator assumes an aggressive outreach role. This includes the minimum of monthly contact with the family and youth to insure that services are being effectively provided.
